Stewart Walker Steps Down as Chair of the TIF Grants Evaluation Committee (GEC)

The TIF is deeply grateful to and appreciative of Stewart Walker for his many years of dedicated service as Chair of the TIF Grants Evaluation Committee (GEC).

Throughout his tenure, Stewart has guided the GEC with great commitment, professionalism, and care. Under his leadership, numerous TIF applications were thoroughly and fairly assessed, enabling highly deserving candidates to be selected to receive TIF grants and benefit from the opportunity to attend and participate in various ISPRS events.

Stewart has also made valuable and lasting contributions to the continuous improvement of the TIF Grant Application Form, helping to streamline and facilitate the work of the GEC and making the application process clearer and more effective for candidates.

His dedication, expertise, and thoughtful leadership have been greatly appreciated, and his contribution to TIF over the years has been truly invaluable. Stewart will be very much missed by all of us.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Stewart for his outstanding service, commitment, and professionalism, and for the time and energy he has devoted to supporting TIF and its mission. Stewart will continue with TIF as a TIF Trustee. We wish him every success and happiness in his new duties with ISPRS, and look forward to continuing to benefit from his expertise and contributions in the future.
